

National Black Arts Festival 2010 / PERFORMANCE PROGRAM

This is the 22nd Anniversary Celebration of Atlanta's National Black Arts Festival, which showcases the contributions of artists of African descent from around the world. This Festival of Theater, Dance, Music, Visual, and Performing Arts brings to Atlanta the dynamic elements of "DIASPORA", the casting of the seed. The term refers to the casting of the peoples of Africa to the many corners of the globe. The Performance Program is The Official, All-Inclusive Performance Playbill for the Festival. This publication is distributed at all ticketed Festival performance venues. Advertisers in the program receive the unique benefit of direct contact to the audiences attending this Mega-Event. Be a part of the excitement generated by this well publicized annual event with affordable, effective advertising that gets noticed by thousands.
